bill. No interest will accrue so long as he is current in his payments. Payments will commence on April 12th, and be due each month thereafter;

ORDER

Mr. Frampton has until close of business April 6, 2011 to enter into one of the arrangements listed above. Should he not choose any one of the arrangements by April 6, 2011, or fail to abide by the terms of the arrangement he chooses, the Company shall be free to terminate his service without previous notice to the Commission and may pursue any means of collection to satisfy the arrearage.

Pursuant to Sections 63G-4-301 and 54-7-15 of the Utah Code, an aggrieved party may request agency review or rehearing of this Order by filing a written request with the Commission within 30 days after the issuance of this Order. Responses to a request for agency review or rehearing must be filed within 15 days of the filing of the request for review or rehearing. If the Commission does not grant a request for review or rehearing within 20 days after the filing of the request, it is deemed denied. Judicial review of the Commission's final agency action may be obtained by filing a petition for review with the Utah Supreme Court within 30 days after final agency action. Any petition for review must comply with the requirements of Sections 63G-4-401 and 63G-4-403 of the Utah Code and Utah Rules of Appellate Procedure.

DATED at Salt Lake City, Utah, this 23rd day of March, 2011.

/s/ Ruben H. Arredondo
Administrative Law Judge
